2 To state a claim under 42 U.S.C. § 1983, a plaintiff must allege two essential elements:
 3 (1) that a right secured by the Constitution or laws of the United States was violated, and (2) that
 4 the alleged violation was committed by a person acting under the color of state law. See West v.

6 B. Plaintiff's Claims

7 Plaintiff claims that, on November 2, 2009, he was pulled over for having a broken
 8 headlight, and then taken into the police station after he gave the officers a fake name. As 9 Plaintiff was being booked and fingerprinted, Defendant Officer Simental ordered him to remove 10 his gold teeth. After Plaintiff refused, Officer Simental informed him that he would remove the 11 gold teeth forcefully. Plaintiff clenched his mouth shut, and Officer Simental called for back-up.
 12 Officer G. Lombardi then approached Plaintiff and tased him. When Plaintiff woke up, blood 13 was running down his face, and Officer Lombardi tased him three more times. Plaintiff was 14 eventually taken to the hospital to check for a concussion, treat his burn marks, receive stitches,
 15 and check his vision.

16 When a pretrial detainee challenges conditions of his confinement, the proper inquiry is 17 whether the conditions amount to punishment in violation of the Due Process Clause of the 18 Fourteenth Amendment. See Bell v. Wolfish, 441 U.S. 520, 535 n.16 (1979). “[T]he State does 19 not acquire the power to punish with which the Eighth Amendment is concerned until after it has 20 secured a formal adjudication of guilt in accordance with due process of law. Where the State
 21 seeks to impose punishment without such an adjudication, the pertinent guarantee is the Due 22 Process Clause of the Fourteenth Amendment.” Id. (quoting Ingraham v. Wright, 430 U.S. 651, 23 671-72 n.40 (1977)). Liberally construed, Plaintiff states a cognizable claim of a violation of 24 due process.

25 CONCLUSION

26 For the foregoing reasons, the court hereby orders as follows:

27 1. The Clerk shall issue a summons, and the United States Marshal shall serve,
 28 without prepayment of fees, copies of the complaint in this matter (docket no. 1), all attachments thereto, and copies of this Order on Officers Juan Simental and G. Lombardi at the City of Pittsburgh Police Department. The Clerk shall also serve a copy of this Order on Plaintiff and mail a courtesy copy of the complaint to the California Attorney General's Office.

2. No later than ninety (90) days from the date of this order, Defendants shall file a motion for summary judgment or other dispositive motion with respect to the cognizable claim in the complaint.

a. If Defendants elect to file a motion to dismiss on the grounds that Plaintiff failed to exhaust his available administrative remedies as required by 42 U.S.C. § 1997e(a), Defendants shall do so in an unenumerated Rule 12(b) motion pursuant to Wyatt v. Terhune, 315 F.3d 1108, 1119-20 (9th Cir. 2003).

b. Any motion for summary judgment shall be supported by adequate factual documentation and shall conform in all respects to Rule 56 of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure. Defendants are advised that summary judgment cannot be granted, nor qualified immunity found, if material facts are in dispute. If Defendants are of the opinion that this case cannot be resolved by summary judgment, they shall so inform the Court prior to the date the summary judgment motion is due.

3. Plaintiff's opposition to the dispositive motion shall be filed with the Court and served on Defendants no later than thirty (30) days from the date Defendants' motion is filed.

a. In the event Defendants file an unenumerated motion to dismiss under Rule 12(b), Plaintiff is hereby cautioned as follows:<sup>1</sup>

The defendants have made a motion to dismiss pursuant to Rule 12(b) of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure, on the ground you have not exhausted your administrative remedies. The motion will, if granted, result in the dismissal of your case. When a party you are suing makes a motion to dismiss for failure to exhaust, and that motion is properly supported by declarations (or other sworn testimony) and/or documents, you may not simply rely on what your complaint says. Instead, you must set out specific facts in declarations, depositions, answers to interrogatories, or documents, that contradict the facts shown in the defendant's declarations and documents and show that you have in fact exhausted your claims. If you do not submit your own evidence in opposition, the motion to dismiss, if appropriate, may be granted and the case dismissed.

b. In the event Defendant files a motion for summary judgment, the Ninth Circuit has held that the following notice should be given to plaintiffs:

The defendants have made a motion for summary judgment by which they seek to have your case dismissed. A motion for summary judgment under Rule 56 of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure will, if granted, end your case.

Rule 56 tells you what you must do in order to oppose a motion for summary judgment. Generally, summary judgment must be granted when there is no genuine issue of material fact--that is, if there is no real dispute about any fact that would affect the result of your case, the party who asked for summary judgment is entitled to judgment as a matter of law, which will end your case. When a party you are suing makes a motion for summary judgment that is properly supported by declarations (or other sworn testimony), you cannot simply rely on what your complaint says. Instead, you must set out specific facts in declarations, depositions, answers to interrogatories, or authenticated documents, as provided in Rule 56(e), that contradict the facts shown in the defendants' declarations and documents and show that there is a genuine issue of material fact for trial. If you do not submit your own evidence in opposition, summary judgment, if appropriate, may be entered against you. If summary judgment is granted in favor of defendants, your case will be dismissed and there will be no trial.

See Rand v. Rowland, 154 F.3d 952, 963 (9th Cir. 1998) (en banc). Plaintiff is advised to read Rule 56 of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure and Celotex Corp. v. Catrett, 477 U.S. 317 (1986) (holding party opposing summary judgment must come forward with evidence showing triable issues of material fact on every essential element of his claim). Plaintiff is cautioned that failure to file an opposition to Defendants' motion for summary judgment may be deemed to be a consent by Plaintiff to the granting of the motion, and granting of judgment against Plaintiff without a trial. See Ghazali v. Moran, 46 F.3d 52, 53-54 (9th Cir. 1995) (per curiam); Brydges v. Lewis, 18 F.3d 651, 653 (9th Cir. 1994).

4. Defendants shall file a reply brief no later than fifteen (15) days after Plaintiff's opposition is filed.

5. The motion shall be deemed submitted as of the date the reply brief is due. No hearing will be held on the motion unless the Court so orders at a later date.

6. All communications by the Plaintiff with the Court must be served on Defendants, or Defendants' counsel once counsel has been designated, by mailing a true copy of the document to Defendants or Defendants' counsel.

1           7.       Discovery may be taken in accordance with the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure.
2 No further Court order is required before the parties may conduct discovery.

3           8.       It is Plaintiff's responsibility to prosecute this case. Plaintiff must keep the Court
4 and all parties informed of any change of address and must comply with the Court's orders in a
5 timely fashion. Failure to do so may result in the dismissal of this action for failure to prosecute
6 pursuant to Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 41(b).

7           IT IS SO ORDERED.
